Description

Henri Giraud (1805-1895) As a member of the Salon des Artistes Français, he exhibited there regularly between 1870 and 1894. His works, blending realism and decorative art, depict female figures, genre scenes, or animals, and are highly sought after today for the finesse of their casting and the quality of their patina. "The Woman with the Pigeon" is a lovely romantic sculpture with a light brown patina and clearly reflects the Art Nouveau movement. The piece is in perfect condition. Information and additional photos available upon request.
