Description

Important Silent Servant in Mahogany from the Louis XVI Period, circa 1780
Sublime and Important Silent Servant in Mahogany from the Louis XVI Period. This two-tiered serving stand features circular trays, each edged with a gilded, openwork brass band. The trays are joined by a fluted central shaft. The entire piece rests on a tripod base. Beautiful flamed mahogany wood, finished with an antique buffed varnish. Furniture of fine craftsmanship, with understated and refined lines. This piece combines practical utility--it can serve as a side table, an occasional table, a serving table, or a display stand--while also making a very attractive visual statement with its harmonious and delicate curves. With its lovely proportions, it will easily complement your decor. This prestigious piece, with its meticulous
