Description

Empire-style mantel mirror in solid mahogany, made in the second half of the 19th century. Its temple-shaped pediment is adorned with rich gilded bronze decoration depicting a knotted laurel wreath accompanied by crossed torches, emblems characteristic of the Empire style's decorative repertoire. The corners are accentuated by slender gables and spandrels in gilded bronze. The mirror retains its beveled mercury glass, offering a reflection of great depth and all the charm of antique mirrors. The warm patina of the mahogany perfectly highlights the luster of the bronze and lends the piece a timeless elegance. With its generous dimensions, it will naturally find its place above a fireplace, in a living room, an entryway, or a distinctive bedroom. Delivery in mainland France:
