Description

An elegant and refined pair of late 19th-century oil paintings on canvas, signed at the bottom by the French painter "P. Duval." The works form a "pendant" of exceptional pictorial and decorative quality, representing 19th-century European-style genre painting. The subjects depict two female figures standing indoors, dressed in traditional costumes rich in detail that evoke Spanish iconography and the Romani/Sinti tradition.One painting depicts a young woman striking a proud pose, with a draped shawl and details of her dress subtly rendered by the artist's vibrant brushwork. The other painting shows a female figure next to a classical guitar resting on the floor. The interior is enhanced by a still life featuring a vase of flowers and a bottle resting on a small side table.The paintings stand out for their extraordinary handling of light and shadow (chiaroscuro) and for a warm color palette dominated by shades of ochre, red, and brown.The paintings are enhanced by their large, period-appropriate frames made of carved wood and gilded with gold leaf. The frames feature rich decoration with floral motifs and raised scrollwork typical of the eclectic style of the late 19th century.Condition as shown in the photos.I'm also on Instagram "Mercantedarteroma"
