Description

A rare and beautiful period cast, produced by the Barye workshop. Features a rich, contrasting light brown patina. Model created in 1832, cast by the Barye workshop around 1857. Signed "BARYE" on the terrace, with ink inscriptions on the reverse. Dimensions: 17.5 x 13 x 11 cm Thanks to the power of its composition and the realism of its execution, this group remains the artist's most iconic "Lion and Serpent" sculpture and one of the most sought-after by collectors.
