Description

Roman Micromosaic Cross with Churches of Rome, 19th Century, 19 × 10 cm

Roman devotional cross in metal with glass micromosaic inlays, made in Rome during the second half of the 19th century.

The trilobed terminals depict several churches of Rome. At the center is the Dove of the Holy Spirit, while the vertical arm bears a metal crucifix and the inscription ROMA, incorporated into the micromosaic decoration.

Overall in good condition. There is a small loss of tesserae on the right arm and minor signs of age, consistent with the period.

Dimensions: 19 × 10 cm.
