

Cherry Wood "farmhouse-style" Dining Or Kitchen Table, 1 Drawer, Center Desk

1 150 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 157 cm

Width : 80 cm

Height : 73 cm

Description

A lovely dining or kitchen table that can also be used as a desk. This solid cherry table rests on four turned baluster legs with tapered sections; they are connected by an H-shaped crossbar with a rectangular, straight cross-section. The apron opens at the front to reveal a central drawer. The tabletop is composed of several planks joined together by grooves and finished at each end with an end cap. Our table is stable and very sturdy. Please note: there is an old dark mark on the inside of one of the legs and a crack on another leg, neither of which affects the table's structural integrity. (See the last two photos.) There are a few superficial marks on the tabletop; these are light marks resulting from use and the piece's age. (See photo.) Due to its size and shape, this table can be used as a desk, a

Dealer

Le Vieux Grenier

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 06 80 66 93 77

39 rue Gabriel Thavenot

Feytiat 87220

dining table, or a living room table. It can also serve as a console table. Dimensions: Length: 157 cm Width: 80 cm Height: 73 cm Height under the apron: 61 cm Please contact us regarding shipping costs