Description

Art Nouveau "coquelicot" bust, designed by the renowned French sculptor Emmanuel Villanis. His works are among the most sought-after Art Nouveau sculptures and are appreciated worldwide for their timeless beauty and exceptional craftsmanship. This magnificent sculpture depicts a young woman with a gentle, dreamy gaze. Her elegantly styled hair is delicately adorned with poppy leaves that blend harmoniously with the flowing lines of her garment, perfectly illustrating the organic language of form characteristic of Art Nouveau. The sculpture is crafted from high-quality, semi-transparent white alabaster. Thanks to the natural properties of this noble stone, light subtly passes through the material, giving the work a warm and almost lifelike
