Description

An exceptional pair of Louis XVI-style game tables. Crafted from mahogany and bird's-eye maple, decorated with brass trim. Olive-shaped legs. This table serves multiple purposes. It can serve as a game table, a small side desk, and also a dressing table. The tabletop opens to reveal a game area with green felt. Pushing the tabletop aside reveals a desk area. The desk opens to reveal a compartment made of burl-patterned maple, which can be used to store game pieces, cards, etc., and also reveals a mirror in the style of a dressing table. Functional key and lock.
