

First Pair Of Curtains With Floral Motifs On A Damask Background - Lined - 20th Century

480 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Description

An elegant pair of curtains crafted from a beautiful white-background damask fabric, featuring a generous floral pattern in delicate pastel shades of pink, dusty pink, sage green, and beige. The weave features a subtle tone-on-tone damask pattern that delicately catches the light and adds depth and sophistication to the overall look. The large floral bouquets, inspired by classic upholstery fabrics, give this pair a romantic and timeless charm. The curtains are fully lined with white lining, ensuring a beautiful shape and an elegant drape. The gathering tape is already in place, allowing for immediate installation. They will add a touch of distinction to a living room, bedroom, or country home, while blending perfectly into a classic, chic, or contemporary interior. Dimensions: Height: 232
