

Fruitwood Measuring Stick, Alsace, 1850

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Length : 68 cm

Description

A fruitwood measuring stick made in Alsace in 1850. This measuring instrument consists of a handle and a wooden stick embellished with various decorative details. The front and back faces feature engraved inscriptions filled with white paint: "ODILIA. FÜRSTENBERGER. 1850" (the owner's name) and the alphabet. The sides display two parallel lines marked with brass tacks indicating different units of measurement--centimeters on one side and inches on the other. Period: Mid-19th century Dimension: Total length: 68 cm Condition: Good

Dealer

Antiquités BASTIAN

House founded in 1871

Tel : +33 (0)3 88 32 45 93

24 place de la Cathédrale

Strasbourg 67000