Description

Japanese hand mirror in metal, featuring a rattan-wrapped handle and decorated with a floral relief design. Attributed to a craftsman from the Shiba workshop in Tokyo, it dates from the transitional period between the end of the Edo period (1603-1868) and the beginning of the Meiji period (1868-1912). Later handwritten inscription on the handle. Beautiful original patina. Carefully packed and shipped with tracked delivery within 24-48 hours. Collection from our gallery (Paris area) is also available. Payment accepted by credit card, bank transfer or PayPal.
