Description

An elegant Art Deco table lamp by the renowned interior designer and cabinetmaker Georges Leleu, a leading figure in French decorative arts during the first half of the 20th century. It consists of a silver-plated metal base finely engraved with stylized plant-inspired motifs, resting on a circular base with relief decoration. Its original frosted molded glass shade features a superb geometric design typical of the 1925-1935 period, alternating between godrons, cabochons, and beaded friezes, providing a beautiful diffusion of light. This lamp perfectly exemplifies the refinement of the Art Deco style, combining clean lines, high-quality craftsmanship, and timeless elegance. It will naturally fit into both classic and contemporary interiors. Dimensions: Height: 39 cm Base
