Description

Marcel ANSELME (1925-1982) Still Life with Fruit Oil on canvas, signed lower left. A charming composition depicting a fruit bowl generously filled with apples, grapes, pomegranates, and figs. This work perfectly illustrates Marcel Anselme's mastery of light and color. The vivid and generous brushstrokes, combined with a luminous palette, lend this still life a beautiful freshness and a warm atmosphere. A French painter and engraver, Marcel Anselme trained under the masters of the Lyon School before going on to become, among other roles, the official portraitist of Archbishop Makarios in Cyprus. His body of work includes portraits, landscapes, and still lifes, all characterized by a deep exploration of light. Dimensions: Canvas: 24 × 33 cm With frame: 37 × 46 cm Condition: Very good condition,
