Description

A magnificent polychrome maiolica piece featuring a mythological-allegorical scene of great artistic impact--characteristic of the Italian istoriato style of the late 19th century--with an impressive diameter of 62 cm.

The center of the istoriato dish depicts a scene from the myth of Rinaldo and Armida (based on Torquato Tasso's Jerusalem Delivered). Although unmarked, the dish is consistent with Italian production from the late 19th century, originating from a workshop in the Abruzzo or Tuscany region.

It is in excellent condition, with no restorations,
