Description

A beautiful scene in the classical style depicting an imperial funeral in ancient Rome, likely the cremation of a Caesar. The composition is centered around a catafalque draped in red cloth, in front of which stand dignitaries dressed in togas, while several onlookers silently witness the ceremony. The figures are rendered with broad strokes of color, emphasizing the play of light and the expressiveness of their poses rather than fine details. The stormy sky heightens the drama of the scene and contrasts with the luminous whites of the drapery. Paper mounted on canvas, carved gilded wooden frame showing some chips and wear. Unsigned work, late 19th / early 20th century. Dimensions with frame: 99x56x7 cm. Dimensions without frame: 79.5x34.5 cm. 6.300 kg.  Free shipping within
