

Mainly Tableware, Louis XVI Style, In Oxblood-colored Porcelain And Gilded Bronze, France

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Width : 35

Height : 37

Description

This monumental Louis XVI-style table centerpiece combines the timeless elegance of a sumptuous gilded bronze frame with the striking beauty of oxblood porcelain in a deep red hue. This magnificent bowl is adorned with finely chiseled and gilded bronze mounts, delicate handles shaped like laurel wreaths, and a charming pair of winged cherubs gracefully embracing one another, while one of them holds aloft the eternal flame. Every detail attests to the exceptional craftsmanship of the most prestigious French bronze workshops of the late 19th century. A true prestige piece, this table centerpiece was created to adorn the most refined interiors and become the centerpiece of any collection. Dimensions: 46 × 35 × 37 cm Bilzen,

Belgium (by appointment) Worldwide shipping

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1790636-mainly-tableware-louis-xvi-style-in-oxblood-colored-porcelain-and-gilded-bronze-france..html>

Dealer

Mora Antiques

Timeless Antiques with Style - Carefully Selected & Worldwide Shipping

Tel : 0031642510212

Mobile : 0032469115104

Keramiekstraat 28

Bilzen 28 3740