

Pair Of Planters In Polychrome Boulle Marquetry, 19th Century

8 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Pair of 19th-century planters, crafted in high-quality polychrome Boulle marquetry. Each piece rests on curved legs adorned with brass bands and delicate inlays. The refined decoration combines floral motifs and arabesques in vivid colors, enhanced by the contrast between the ebony and the brass inlays. The rich, finely chiseled and gilded bronze mounts, adorned with mascarons and volutes, attest to remarkable goldsmithing. An openwork brass gallery elegantly frames the upper section, designed to hold plants or floral arrangements. Inspired by the designs of Charles Boulle, these planters exemplify the expertise of the great 19th-century cabinetmakers and stand as a remarkable example of the luxury furniture of that era. Dimensions: Height: 82 cm - Width: 62.5 cm -
