Description

Jacob De Wit (Amsterdam, 1695-1754) attributed to / workshop Pair of cherubs with a garland of flowers Oil on canvas (91 x 103 cm. - Framed 104 x 115 cm.) Provenance: Christie's (London, Old Master Painting, Dec. 12, 1996) lot 82 This magnificent composition depicts two cherubs holding up a garland of flowers, set against an elegant architectural backdrop featuring bas-reliefs and masks, presumably the top of a fountain. One of the two cherubs playfully holds up a section of the garland with his hands, while turning his head toward the viewer; the second cherub, however, must have clumsily broken the string holding up his end of the garland, and sits sulking with a torch and a single tear rolling down his chubby cheek. Given its stylistic characteristics and compositional style, the work
