Description

Vintage 'Bibip' floor lamp, designed by Achille Castiglioni for Flos in the 1970s. Featuring a minimalist and functional design, this lamp stands out for its chromed metal frame and ceramic components. The hemispherical sand-filled base ensures stability, while the thin, stove-enamelled steel tube supports the entire structure, allowing for the passage of the electrical conductor. The ceramic end piece houses a lamp holder, while the reflector can be adjusted thanks to a cool-to-the-touch ring handle, allowing the light to be directed sideways or upwards. The manufacturer's label is present. Product Condition: The lamp is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the actual condition of the lamps as accurately as possible with the photos. If any details are not clear from
