Description

A stunning and impressive Art Deco ball vase, a collaboration between Daum and Majorelle. This large ball vase features glass set within a wrought-iron frame by Majorelle; it has been entirely etched to create a granite-like effect and the appearance of falling rain. Note the beautiful round shape on a wide wrought-iron base with a small, straight neck. Herringbone patterns run down the entire vase. Very thick glass--over 10 kilos!!!! 37 cm tall and 27 cm in diameter. This model is clearly cataloged by Daum; see the last photo. A timeless, perfect, and highly aesthetic piece. A rare model, certainly the largest of its kind.
