

Roof Finial Chinese Imperial Style

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Terracotta

Diameter : 14.4

Depth : 2.4

Description

A roof finial (see photo), Chinese in style, made of glazed earthenware and stamped with a five-clawed dragon--an imperial symbol. The five-clawed dragon was reserved exclusively for objects, clothing, and furniture intended for the emperor. We can therefore conclude that this tile was located at one end of an imperial palace.
