Description

A charming religious painting depicting a musician angel blowing a natural trumpet, painted on a wooden panel. The figure, dressed in a red tunic adorned with star motifs, is depicted against a gold-leaf background, with a halo and decorative elements engraved in the style of the Italian Primitives. The panel is set in an elegant, architecturally styled frame of carved wood, featuring twisted columns, entirely gilded with gold leaf. The ensemble, in the Neo-Gothic style, is a 19th-century work inspired by the religious art of the Renaissance and the Middle Ages. Beautifully decorative, ideal for a collection of sacred art or a cabinet of curiosities. Period: 19th century. Materials: paint on wood panel, carved wooden frame gilded with gold leaf. Dimensions: 38 × 15.5 cm. Condition: signs of wear and small
