Description

Set of 2 Bridge armchairs and one armchair attributed to Jules Leleu, 1930sA beautiful 1930s living room set consisting of two Bridge armchairs and one matching armchair. The lines are typical of Art Deco: balanced proportions, sculpted armrests, tapered legs, and a silhouette that is both graphic and elegant.The work of a "master designer": meticulous craftsmanship, a striking presence in any room, and true quality of execution (sturdy frame, consistent design across all three chairs). The set also offers remarkable comfort thanks to the high backrest and generous seat. Style and craftsmanship attributed to Jules Leleu.Discover all our other products on our website: www.llantiquites.com
