Description

Art Deco-era secretary desk in mahogany veneer, solid mahogany, and lemonwood, framed by a structure with rounded corners. The fronts are adorned with a geometric diamond-patterned marquetry design. The upper section, topped by a niche, opens via a flap fitted with brass hinges, revealing an interior fitted with several storage compartments and a drawer. The lower section opens via two doors concealing a shelf. It rests on a stepped base with typical Art Deco lines. Original bronze locks and keys are functional. Restored as needed in our workshop. Finished with a buffed varnish. In very good condition.
