Description

We are delighted to offer this captivating antique 18ct gold carnelian intaglio ring made during the early/mid-19th century. The ring is set with a central carnelian intaglio (possibly an earlier carving) of a gentleman in portrait and has been ever so intricately hand-engraved with impressive detail. Imagining the time, skill and focus required to engrave such a stone (inwards), leaving such a crisp and lifelike portrait is truly remarkable with these pieces. A close inspection around the gentleman's hair, beard, and shoulder seams of his shirt reveals an exceptional depth of detail, particularly considering the entire surface only measures 1.8cm x 1.4cm. The tone of gold is a lovely antique warm hue with a very slight hint of rose gold, which complements the colour of the carnelian intaglio and presents an overall very
