Description

A decorative gold-leather folding screen dating from around 1860, adorned with panels of gold-leather that are finely embossed and framed by a finely carved wooden frame. The richness of the carvings and the warm patina lend this piece a unique elegance and character. The screen shows signs of wear consistent with its age, including marks from use, small tears, and cracking in the gilded leather. These characteristics contribute to the authenticity of this antique piece. Please refer to the photographs to assess its condition in detail. Dimensions: Height: 117 cm Depth: 2.5 cm Width: 115 cm
