Description

An elegant, curved Louis XV-style chest of drawers, made in the 20th century. It is distinguished by refined marquetry of precious woods, composed of curly veneers and delicate floral inlays, reflecting high-quality cabinetmaking. The front features two spacious drawers offering ample storage space. The handles, lock plates, corner finials, feet, and central ornament are made of finely chiseled bronze, elegantly highlighting the harmonious curves of the piece. The top is crowned with a magnificent, perfectly fitted molded beige marble slab, adding a touch of elegance while protecting the piece. Thanks to its curved lines, rich marquetry, and high-quality bronze hardware, this chest of drawers will fit equally well in a classic interior or a more contemporary setting, adding a
