

Sock-knitting Loom, Louis XIII Style, Made Of Walnut, 17th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

Impressive 17th-century Louis XIII chest of drawers in walnut. A rare and elegant Louis XIII chest of drawers in solid walnut, dating from the 17th century, featuring remarkable carving and excellent condition. It opens with a large door adorned with molded panels featuring geometric designs in high relief, with a magnificent upper panel carved in a star pattern and a lower panel with diamond-shaped points. The sides are also paneled and decorated with raised lozenges, reflecting exceptionally meticulous craftsmanship. The piece is crowned by an imposing overhanging cornice resting on a frieze adorned with rectangular medallions and diamond-shaped cabochons, typical of Louis XIII furniture. It rests on a sturdy molded plinth finished with four original ball-shaped legs. The

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200

chest of drawers features a wide drawer in the lower section, retaining its original drop-down handle. It has its period lock as well as a functional key. The interior is fitted with several shelves, offering ample storage space. Crafted from solid walnut, this chest of drawers features a beautiful antique patina and is in excellent condition, with only the normal signs of wear expected in a piece of furniture that has endured for over three centuries. With its generous dimensions, architectural elegance, and high-quality craftsmanship, this impressive chest of drawers is a prime piece for a castle, a historic home, or a collection of Louis XIII furniture. Dimensions: Height: 233 cm Width: 148 cm Depth: 81 cm Period: 17th century. Condition: In very good condition, with original lock and key, and a beautiful antique patina. This Louis XIII chest of drawers is an authentic piece of furniture, rare in these dimensions and of remarkable quality, representative of the finest French craftsmanship of the 17th century.