Description

Bring a touch of refined French modernism to a living room or family room with this elegant set of three vintage nesting tables. Made in France around 1930, these "nesting tables" are handcrafted from wrought iron with a golden patina finish and feature graceful "Dagobert" legs shaped like a curule, connected by decorative rope crossbars in the center. Each rectangular tabletop retains its original églomisé glass surface, which lends it depth, light, and a subtly aged character that harmonizes perfectly with the burnished iron frame. Designed to nest perfectly one inside the other, the tables offer versatile functionality while maintaining a sculptural presence when displayed together. Ideal next to a sofa, between two lounge chairs, or stacked in an elegant reception area, the nesting tables are in
