Description

This terracotta statue dates from the Han Dynasty and is known as the "court lady." The court lady is depicted standing. The polychrome paint is original. Regarding its condition, please note that the statue is in two pieces; we note signs of wear due to age and small chips in places. The statue remains presentable, however, though not perfect. Please take a close look at the photos, which are an integral part of the description. Feel free to contact me with any questions.
