Description

Franz Becker, Colditz Castle - 1926 Oil on canvas This painting, created in 1926 by the Wiesbaden-based artist Franz Becker, offers an impressive view of Colditz Castle. The composition combines precise, realistic depiction with an atmospheric treatment of light, characteristic of early modern landscape painting. The artist captures in great detail both the majesty of the castle towering over the landscape from its rocky outcrop and the peaceful river scene in the foreground. The harmony of colors and the meticulous execution lend the work depth and expressiveness. The painting has been professionally cleaned and recoated with a new varnish, which allows the colors to stand out clearly while ensuring the work's preservation. It is in very good condition considering its age and
