Description

Empire-style console table made of poplar veneered with walnut and walnut burl, from Lombardy and dating to the early 19th century. The refined design and use of fine materials lend this piece a timeless elegance. The white marble top adds a touch of brightness and sturdiness, while the square-section front legs and rectangular-section rear legs ensure stability and style. The base features a curved front and plinth feet. Ideal for enhancing a classic setting with a piece of authentic historical value. Product Condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
