Description

A pentagonal table designed by Charlotte Perriand for the Nova and Les Lauzières residences in Les Arcs 1800 in the 1970s. It features a thick pentagonal tabletop made of solid laminated pine resting on a central cruciform base of black-lacquered steel. Its unique geometry allows for multiple arrangements and illustrates the functional approach developed by Charlotte Perriand for communal spaces and mountain apartments. This table retains a beautiful patina and shows signs of restoration. Bibliography: Charlotte Perriand, L'Oeuvre complète, vol. 4: 1968-1999, Jacques Barsac, Norma, p. 268.
