

Second Set Of Chintz Curtains Printed With Rhododendrons, Azaleas, And A Monochromatic Color Scheme

590 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 246 cm + ourlet de 25 cm

Width : 200 cm

Description

A second, magnificent pair of curtains crafted from a sumptuous printed chintz featuring a lush design of rhododendron branches in full bloom. (3 other identical pairs are available) The design features generous branches of rhododendrons or azaleas in full bloom, with blooms unfurling in a palette of soft pinks, dusty rose, raspberry, and burgundy. The foliage, abundant and finely drawn, blends various shades of sage green, olive, and almond, while a delicately striped ivory background is enlivened by broad watercolor strokes of celadon blue and turquoise, lending depth and freshness to the overall design. The fine graphic accents around the flowers add a highly decorative, almost Japanese-inspired touch that lightens the composition. The overall effect evokes a lush garden bathed in soft spring

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur

French antiques textiles

Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes

Névian 11200

light. Generous clusters of flowers, in delicate shades of powder pink, dusty rose, raspberry, and burgundy, bloom amid elegant sage green and almond-colored foliage. The ivory background, subtly punctuated by fine stripes, is enlivened by broad, celadon-blue watercolor accents that bring freshness, depth, and luminosity to this refined composition. The overall design evokes grand English gardens and elegant interiors where floral fabrics create a romantic and timeless atmosphere. Fully lined curtains, crafted to a very high standard. Gathering tape in place; top pleats preserved. Excellent condition. Dimensions: Height: 246 cm + 25 cm hem Width: 200 cm each Four identical pairs are available, allowing you to dress large picture windows or create a particularly spectacular and harmonious decor. A high-quality decorative fabric, ideal for both classic homes and contemporary interiors seeking elegance and color. ref 080726