Description

An important pair of finely carved and gilded wooden mirror sconces, likely an 18th-century Italian piece. These elegant mirrors feature a richly ornate Baroque-style design, composed of volutes, scrolls, stylized shells, foliage, and openwork motifs. The crown is adorned with an imposing palmette motif, while the lower section is finished with a finely carved decorative drop. The overall design offers a particularly elegant and balanced silhouette. The antique gilding, now weathered by time, highlights the quality of the carving and lends this pair an authentic charm. The antique mercury-glass mirrors display beautiful oxidation and slight pitting, characteristic of 18th-century mirrors, which reinforce their historical character. Designed to be mounted on either side of a fireplace, a door, or a
