Description

A pair of Maralunga ottomans designed by Vico Magistretti for Cassina in 1973, one of the most iconic creations in Italian design, which won the Compasso d'Oro award in 1979. Resting on two sled-leg supports upholstered in black leather, they feature a thick, padded seat that offers remarkable comfort. The fluid lines and generous proportions, characteristic of the Maralunga collection, exemplify the pursuit of a balance between elegance, functionality, and well-being that made Vico Magistretti so successful. Manufacturer's label. Edition: Cassina, Italy, circa 1973.
