Description

Pierre GRISOT (1911-1995) Elegant Parisian Scene - Signed oil on canvas A beautiful oil on canvas, signed lower left, depicting an elegant young woman wearing a wide yellow hat, strolling in light rain along a bustling avenue. In the background, horse-drawn carriages and a few passersby blend into a misty atmosphere, charmingly evoking early 20th-century Paris. Born in 1911 and died in 1995, Pierre Grisot was a French painter renowned for his poetic Parisian scenes. He was particularly drawn to elegant women, bustling boulevards, rainy days, and the play of light, which he captured with a supple and luminous touch. His work, influenced by the great painters of Parisian life, captivates with its elegance and timeless atmosphere. This work is a fine example of his
