Description

17th-century Louis XIII walnut sideboardA superb sideboard in solid walnut from the Louis XIII period, dating from the 17th century. This piece opens with two doors featuring molded panels adorned with diamond-shaped motifs, surmounted by three drawers--two large side drawers and one small central drawer.The front, with its understated elegance, is highlighted by remarkable molding work characteristic of the Louis XIII style. The sides are also paneled; the joints are doweled; and the period hardware contributes to the piece's overall authenticity.The interior, featuring a shelf, offers ample storage space. This sideboard boasts a beautiful original patina and is in excellent condition. Its elegance and proportions make it a piece of furniture that is as decorative as it is
