Description

John Lewis BROWN (1829-1890) Attributed to, SKETCHBOOK 12.5 x 20 cm (loose sheets) Sketchbook, bound in cardboard, with a worn elastic band and a pencil holder, comprising thirty-eight sheets, thirty-two of which contain drawings or annotations. It contains ink and graphite sketches of landscapes - notably of Scotland and Egypt, the latter enhanced with watercolour - as well as seascapes, portraits of a man and a cat, and architectural sketches. The monogram 'LB' appears several times throughout the sketchbook. The label from the art supplies shop where the sketchbook was purchased - Louis Latouche, located at 34 Rue La Fayette, Paris - suggests a date between 1865 and 1887. Bibliography: Several graphite sketches are known to be held in the Department of Graphic
