Description

Quarter round library steps in turned and carved wood. Italy, 19th century. 40 x 40 x h 120 cm. Quarter round library steps composed of four triangular treads radiating around a central turned baluster shaft, crowned by a ball finial. The frame, entirely turned and carved, rests on shaped legs joined by curved stretchers. The tread surfaces are covered in green leather with a fine gilt border, typical of nineteenth century study and library furnishings. The piece served as a practical aid for reaching volumes stored on the highest shelves. Condition report: Good condition, with traces of natural ageing to the wood and slight wear to the leather coverings, consistent with age. All shipments within the EU are free and professionally packaged. This item is sold with a legally valid certificate of authenticity. Further
