Description

Art Nouveau / Napoleon III-style floor lamp, late 19th - early 20th century. The highly ornate base and floral motifs are typical of this period. Materials Shank and structure: Gilded brass or bronze with a beautiful antique patina. The work is finely chiseled with volutes, foliage, and plant motifs. Base: Trilobed tripod base in white marble or onyx. The legs end in brass feet. Reservoir: Urn-shaped central section, decorated with relief motifs and pendants. This is likely a former kerosene lamp that has been converted to electricity.
