Description

Large circular mirror tray or centerpiece in gilded bronze from the Empire period. Resting on three legs adorned with a satyr's head, the tray is bordered by a double frieze of water leaves. The original mirror is a mercury mirror. The original gilding is slightly faded and stained in places. Dated to the early 19th century. In the last photo, you can see the second, smaller centerpiece we have for sale in our gallery; this one is truly large. Shipping: 30 euros within France, 80 euros within the EU, and 150 euros to the rest of the world.
