Description

Louis-Philippe-style weekly planner in flamed mahogany, with a veined marble top. An elegant Louis-Philippe period weekly planner, crafted from flamed mahogany with a superb grain featuring warm tones. This refined piece is topped with a veined marble slab, adding a touch of prestige while protecting the surface. It features seven drawers--one for each day of the week--adorned with original locks and gilded bronze knobs. The drawer fronts display a magnificent symmetrical veneer pattern, characteristic of high-quality 19th-century furniture. The understated and balanced lines, typical of the Louis-Philippe style, allow this weekly drawer cabinet to blend seamlessly into both classic and contemporary interiors. In perfect overall condition. Dimensions: Height: 147
