Description

Antique French Ceramic Hanging Planter - Napoleon III Style This antique French ceramic hanging planter, signed and dating from the Napoleon III era (1852-1870), is a rare decorative piece with a unique charm. Its elegant design and refined details make it a true focal point in classic, country-style, or eclectic interiors. The planter is in beautiful original condition; it shows slight imperfections due to its age, which only enhance its authenticity. It is a prime piece for lovers of French antiques, vintage finds, and 19th-century ceramics. A unique blend of historic charm and timeless elegance that instantly adds character to any living space.
