Description

Large pair of opaline glass and metal wall sconces in a 1960s design by the German manufacturer Primat Leuchte. Each wall sconce consists of two ribbed opaline glass "shades," connected by a fluted gold-plated metal ring. Original wiring is in working condition, but not guaranteed. Signs of wear on the glass, but no chips or cracks--Primat Leuchte manufacturer's label. Primat Leuchte was a German lighting manufacturer active primarily from the 1950s to the 1970s. The company produced wall sconces, ceiling lights, and pendant lights for the domestic market, featuring the understated design characteristic of German Mid-Century style.
