Description

Large console table with columns or sideboard, finished in mahogany veneer with bronze trim, featuring a drawer along the base. Entirely crafted in Paris from Empire-era oak. While the columned model is a great classic of the Empire style, our console table is a particularly beautiful example of the genre, featuring all the luxurious finishes sought after by connoisseurs--and which set it apart from a common model: beautiful, finely chiseled bronze trim--including the column rings. It is topped with a St. Annemarle slab. It is an ideal piece for an entryway, to serve as a sideboard in a dining room, or as a console table in a living room. Everything is authentic Empire period: original marble, bronze fittings, and, of course, thick-sawn mahogany. A true classic of Empire furniture, this piece features elegant
