Description

Photograph of Two Ciociarian Women in Traditional Costume - Rome, Late 19th Century Albumen photograph depicting two young Ciociarian women in traditional costume, taken in Rome in the late 19th century. The print is mounted on its original photographer's card by Francesco Felicetti, bearing the address Piazza di Spagna 9, Rome. The two sitters pose in a studio setting wearing richly embroidered traditional dress and holding tambourines, reflecting the type of imagery that was especially popular with Grand Tour travellers and early collectors of ethnographic photography. Good overall condition. The original mount shows light age-related wear and minor corner rubbing, consistent with its age. Card mount dimensions:

38 × 30 cm. Photograph dimensions: 21 × 17 cm.
