

Napoleon III-style Liqueur Cabinet With Marquetry

1 100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

A superb and elegant liqueur cabinet in Napoleon III-era veneer. With a curved front, it opens via a two-part lid on the front and two pivoting side panels. The interior features a removable rosewood tray holding all the glasses and decanters. The entire cabinet is fully inlaid with strips of brass, walnut, and bone on a background of thuja burl. The decanters and glasses are a matching set in perfect condition (one glass is missing out of the 16). A high-quality piece in perfect condition, elegant and timeless.
