Description

French clock from the mid-1800s in the Louis XVI style, made of mercury-gilded bronze. It features an architectural design in the neoclassical style. The case has a temple-like shape with a circular white enamel dial, signed "Nicaud Fabt", featuring Roman numerals for the hours and Arabic numerals for the minutes. The openwork Louis XVI-style hands complete the dial, which is protected by a molded frame with beaded decorations. Stylistic origin: France Period: mid-19th century Style: Louis XVI / Neoclassical Dimensions: 28x16x42h cm, bronze SKU: 17495
